

Press release

Accademia Costume & Moda participates in Fashion Graduate Italia 2021
with
Academic Master in "Alta Moda, Fashion Design" - FASHION SHOW
&
Academic Master in "Accessories Design" - EXHIBITION

Milan-based via Bergognone 34, Milano
#accademiacostumeemoda #acmmaster2021

Milan, October 27, 2021. Accademia Costume & Moda (ACM) took part in Fashion Graduate Italia 2021, a 3-day event, now in its fifth edition and organized by Piattaforma Sistema Formativo Moda, which represents the opening of a constantly evolving training system, dedicated to students and those who are passionate about fashion.

On Tuesday, October 26th the Accademia Costume & Moda presented the personal projects of the students of the Academic Master in "Alta Moda, Fashion Design" during a FASHION SHOW with the collections of Caterina Antonia Ciavattella, Ehetesh Delle Curti, Paula Fernández Álvarez, Isabella Giovannini, Angelo Raffaele Masciello and Silvia Manzara.

The students have been followed, during the whole training course, by Santo Costanzo, Director of the Master and Coordinator of ACM's Fashion Area, as well as by Michela Leto di Priolo, Scientific Director of the Master.

The Academic Master in "Alta Moda, Fashion Design" (60 ECTS, European Credit Transfer and Accumulation System), every year boasts the participation of important Made in Italy companies, and this year the following have decided to support the project: Maison Valentino, Tessitura Stamperia Luigi Verga and Museoa Cristobal Balenciaga.

In addition, from October 24th to 26th, Accademia Costume & Moda presented the work of the students of the Academic Master in "Accessories Design" (60 ECTS) with an EXHIBITION featuring the creations that were made for the Industry Projects (the projects with a collaboration between students and Maison) in collaboration with Fendi, Salvatore Ferragamo and Furla.

Followed by Luigi Mulas Debois, Director of the Master and Coordinator of ACM's Accessories Area, the students who presented their creations are the following: Benjamin Ambrosini, Violeta Del Rocio Ascurra Diaz, Julia Assis Falcão, Licio Nicolò Barile, Sara Barj, Aaishwarya Shivaji Bhise, Beatrice Darwell-Taylor Falconeri, Andrea Falchi, John Oyinkansola Morenike, Joaquin Marco Oteros, Tomás Linares Peña, Laura Pistorino, Singh Sandhu Jeetinder, Silvia Stefanucci, Sofia Tucci.

"Fashion Graduate Italia represents a moment of celebration of the training system, as well as an important showcase of visibility of the Italian educational system, and we are proud that our young people are able to present their collections in such a vibrant and creative context.

"A significant opportunity for their personal and professional growth and an important opportunity for the Academy itself to compare notes." said A. Lupo Lanzara, President of Accademia Costume & Moda.

"We are happy to show the expertise and professionalism acquired by our students in a context of excellence such as Piattaforma Sistema Formativo Moda. Moreover, this took place in a city - Milan - that has become our second home and that has allowed us to strengthen the areas dedicated to communication and management, thanks to the recent opening of our campus in Via Fogazzaro 23" said Furio Francini, CEO Accademia Costume & Moda, among the three most important fashion institutes in the world for the Fashion Design category, according to the study of the British magazine The Business of Fashion (BoF), "The Best Fashion Schools in the World 2019".

Our special thanks go to the Italian manufacturing companies that supported the students in the realization of their projects Alesilk, Chirale, EffePierre, Flora S.N.C. di Signorelli Angela & Co., Gentili Mosconi, Isa Seta, Merola Gloves, Ostinelli Seta, Ratti, Russo di Casandrino, Tessitura Stamperia Luigi Verga.

Press office:
Perfectogether
Andrea Spezzigu
+39 340 000 9665
press@perfectogether.com